nûmen

RESUME

Conner Hollingsworth

Software developer and business owner responsible for AI agent development, client communication, quality assurance, and deployment. Coordinates work with one additional developer. Background includes construction management shadowing, drone operations, and social media management.

conner@numen.build

Professional experience

Co-Founder and Lead Developer / Numen

June 2026 to present

- Lead development of AI agents and business automation solutions for clients.
- Communicate with clients to understand requirements, share progress, and gather feedback.
- Coordinate development priorities and implementation with one additional developer.
- Perform quality assurance, troubleshoot issues, and verify functionality before release.
- Handle system deployments and ongoing maintenance and improvements.

Assistant Developer / Mira Systems

April 2026 to June 2026

Assisted with software development.

Social Media Manager and Drone Content Creator / Bonfiglio Landscape

2026 to present

Manage social media content and create drone footage showcasing landscape projects.

Construction Management Shadowing / Hollingsworth Design Build

2025 to May 2026

Shadowed construction management activities across three job sites.

Social Media Manager and Drone Content Creator / Dicharry Developments

May 2025 to January 2026

Managed social media and captured drone footage for development content.

Social Media Manager and Drone Content Creator / Hollingsworth Design

October 2024 to February 2025

Managed social media and captured drone footage for property content.

Drone Roof Inspection

2024

Operated drones to capture roof inspection imagery.

Bagger and Stocker / Colandro Supermarket

2023 to 2024

Bagged groceries; promoted to stocking merchandise in 2024.

Education

High School Graduate

Capabilities

AI agent development · Client communication · Quality assurance · Deployment · Drone operations · Social media